The International Cooperation Agency of the Republic of Chile (AGCI) is offering scholarships to nationals of Antigua & Barbuda, Bahamas, Barbados, Dominica, Belize, Grenada, Guyana, Jamaica, Montserrat, St. Lucia, St. Kitts & Nevis, St. Vincent and the Grenadines, Suriname and Trinidad & Tobago. Scholarships are open to teachers of Spanish at the primary or secondary level, holding a university degree, with at least 5 years experience in the profession.

Commencement of Programme: August 1, 2016
End of Programme: September 2, 2016

* Command of the Spanish language is a requirement of the scholarship

*Deadline for submitting all completed applications electronically and in hard copy is June 15, 2016.

All documentation for the scholarship must be submitted in hard copy with the original documentation required and sent electronically (Information below). Documents must be submitted to the Latin American – Caribbean Centre of the University of the West Indies and the Embassy of Chile in Jamaica and Trinidad & Tobago.

Documents to submit to contact points electronically and in hard copy:

- Application Form (Spanish). Photograph to be attached electronically.
- Proof (letter) of commitment of the applicant to obtain health and life insurance (Spanish)
- Proof (letter) of commitment of the applicant to return to their country of origin (Spanish)
- Curriculum Vitae with emphasis on work experience (Spanish)
- Copy of degree certificate (if the applicant is successful, this document will need to be certified by the Chilean Consulate).
- Medical Certificate
- Letter from institution (employer) supporting applicant’s participation, if selected, and confirming applicant’s continued employment at institution for at least two years.

The previously-mentioned entities are responsible for verifying that applicants meet all the eligibility criteria, as well as making a pre-selection of applicants, whose applications will then be submitted to the AGCI.

Original documents must remain in the possession of applicants and will be required only from those selected, upon arrival in Chile. This measure has been set up to expedite the selection process in Chile. However, the embassies will be in charge of advising applicants in fulfilling all requirements.

THE FINAL SELECTION RESULTS WILL BE COMMUNICATED BY JULY 15, 2016.
