

StrongerCARIBBEAN
TOGETHER
FOR LAND, FOOD & CLIMATE JUSTICE

Jamaican Civil Society shows Haitian Solidarity through week of events

Kingston, Jamaica: July 14, 2025

For immediate release:

In Solidarity with Haitians, the Stronger Caribbean Together Network under the Open Society Foundations Funded Disaster Capitalism project is hosting a series of events on July 23, 24, and 26, 2025:

The Rosa Dialogues:
Divided and Conquered: How the Caribbean is failing Haiti

Date: Wednesday, July 23, 2025

Time: 6:00 pm

Location: Café Rosa

An open dialogue with Caribbean experts and civil society leaders on Haiti's Role in Caribbean Liberation, their subsequent debt and isolation, and CARICOM's policies.

Political Pulse: Voices Across the Caribbean

Date: Thursday, July 24, 2025

Time: 1pm

Platform: Zoom

A virtual webinar with Caribbean civil society leaders from Cayman, Dominica, Haiti and Jamaica on the political and environmental issues faced in their respective nations and the connection of Caribbean perspectives.

Fete for Haiti

Date: July 26, 2025

Time: 6:00 pm -midnight

Location: Café Rosa

A fundraising event that celebrates Haitian and Caribbean culture through music and dance.

The intended audience includes youth, civil society organisations, and the general public. The aim is to connect the common issues faced by Caribbean nations with specific focus on Haiti.

We invite members of the media to cover these events.

---End--

Contact:

Miss Dahvia Hylton

Co-Coordinator

Stronger Caribbean Together Network

<https://strongercaribbeantgether.org/>

E: diskincarib@gmail.com

T: (876) 545-2044

The Stronger Caribbean Together Network is supported through the Disaster Capitalism Project grant to the UWI from the Open Society Foundations